

International Outreach:

Where Our world
meets His world.

With their six, that's right SIX children, Dean and Autumn Jordon moved to Democratic Republic of Congo in 1998 to serve a second generation mission effort in the vast, neglected interior of Africa's largest country. They remain leaders of a team effort that includes a medical, business, humanitarian and church planting work. Since their move, their family has expanded to include a son-in-law, a daughter-in-law, and four grandchildren. Their two youngest remain with them in Kinshasa, Congo.

Paul and Donna Meints are in Kitale Kenya, East Africa. Paul is a gifted teacher and prophetic leader teaching pastors and training leaders. With his wife Donna, they team with other missionaries in supporting orphanages and ministries to street children.

Short-term mission trips have always been a vital part of our discipleship training. Our strategy is to expose the lives of our members to other cultures and needs that move us beyond individual comfort zones. Costa Rica is our main door of opportunity for week-long trips for young and old alike to freely give what each has freely received.
